

Two Friends

14 2 2

Chapter 1 by ajda

One day two friends were walking through the desert. It was a very hot day and they were tired, hungry and thirsty. As they were walking, they starting having an argument. They were talking about what to eat that night, which was unimportant, but the argument became loud. As they were shouting, one friend slapped the other one on the face!

Chapter 2 by intellikat

It wasn't a hard slap, not at all. But sometimes in life, the right elements fall into place such that what you never would expect to happen does. And so it was with the slap. When the one friend slapped the other one, it killed them instantly.

Chapter 3 by intellikat

Because they were in the desert, covering up this act of manslaughter would be easy, but the harder thing would be to cover the guilt associated with this turn of events... especially for a Mormon pastor of a rather large and influential congregation!
